2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant and another person and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the defacto complainant and A1 are relatives. During the funeral ceremony, there was a dispute among the relatives, due to which, the accused persons assaulted the defacto complainant and another and thereby, caused injuries. He further submits that the injured have been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and also considering the fact that the injured have been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that

(i) the petitioners execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five
