2. The case of the prosecution is that there is a civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. While so, on 06.06.2024, at about 9.00 a.m., the petitioners tried to put up a tent and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners assaulted him with a stick and caused injuries.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. However, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that it is a case in counter. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) opposes for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5. Considering the nature of offence and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within
