2. The petitioner has filed this petition seeking to issue a Writ of Quo-Warranto calling upon the seventh respondent to show cause under what authority of law, he is holding the post of Sub Inspector of Police in the Government of Tamil Nadu, more particularly, in the Police Department on the ground of malpractice and violation of police standing order, based on the his representation dated 04.05.2024 made to the respondents 1 to 6.

3. Though the petitioner has filed this petition seeking to issue a Writ of Qua-Warranto, curiously, no order passed by the seventh respondent is under challenge.

4. The petitioner is said to have preferred a complaint before the sixth respondent on certain allegations and the same was forwarded to the file of the Sub Inspector of Police, Chekkanoorani Police Station. Since the Sub Inspector of Police did not conduct any enquiry, the petitioner has filed a writ petition before this Court in W.P.(MD)No.13064 of 2023, wherein, this Court, by order dated 06.06.2023, has directed the

5. Mr.A.Ramesh, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and that the seventh respondent who is holding the post of Sub of Police and also incharge of the Inspector of Police, borani Police Station, has failed to comply with the orders of the t.

by name C.Balamurugan in not a party before the earlier contempt proceedings and that the orders in the earlier contempt proceedings were passed against some named individuals. For any extraneous reasons, if the petitioner has a grievance that the seventh respondent in his official capacity does not proceed to make any enquiry on the complaint preferred by him, the petitioner shall take the issue to the appropriate higher authorities or file a private complaint. Without resorting to such procedures, the petitioner has filed this petition seeking for issuance of Writ of Quo-Warranto.

7. In view of the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of and the petitioner is at liberty to take the issue to the appropriate higher authorities or to file a private complaint. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
