2. At the outset, it is to be noted that the petitioner seeks for removal of encroachment in the subject land. However, he has not impleaded the alleged encroachers as party respondents. Therefore, when this Court was about to dismiss the writ petition on the ground of non-joinder of necessary parties, learned counsel for the petitioner sought permission of this Court to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to file a fresh writ petition by impleading the alleged encroachers as party respondents and he has also made an endorsement to that effect.

3. In view of the endorsement so made, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for. No costs.
