2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute among the neighbours, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant by using filthy language, attacked him and also threatened with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours. On the direction of the Magistrate, under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C, the case has been registered and the investigation is pending.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence and considering the fact that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are neighbours, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
