2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused demanded money for consuming liquor from the defacto complainant and when the same was refused by him, the accused persons have assaulted the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the defacto complainant was working under the petitioner a long ago, during that time he failed to return the amount, which he has borrowed from the petitioner and when the same was questioned, this false complainant has been lodged. Therefore, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submits that the investigation in this case is yet to be completed. The injured person has been discharged from the Hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the Hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Madurai on condition that the petitioner shall
