2.The case of the prosecution is that there is a civil dispute between the parties.

When the Revenue Authorities visited the house of the defacto complainant for the purpose of allotment of house under Central Government Scheme, the accused persons attacked the defacto complainant with deadly weapons.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police submits that this is the second petition for anticipatory bail and the earlier petition was dismissed on the ground that the injured person was taking treatment in the hospital. Further, he submits that now the injured person has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also considering that the injured persons has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
