A1 and A2, eloped with one Hariprasath, who is the son of the deceased. Therefore, the petitioners abused the mother of Hariprasath and also threatened her, due to which, she committed suicide.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submits that due to wordy altercation, the mother of the defacto complainant committed suicide by hanging. He further submits that the investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence and considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that:

(i) the petitioner executes a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five
