2. The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute between the parties, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant by using filthy language, attacked her.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submits that the investigation is yet to be completed and the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he fairly submits that the petitioner is not having any previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of offence and considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case and the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the concerned learned Judicial Magistrate, on condition that:
