Act, have filed this petition seeking anticipatory bail.

2. The defacto complainant is the paternal aunt of the first petitioner. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and harassed her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are husband and wife. Due to money dispute, the defacto complainant's husband picked up a quarrel with the first petitioner and also abused them. Now, the defacto complainant has foisted this case against the petitioners, at the instigation of her husband. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the investigation is yet to be completed.

5. Considering the nature of offence and the relationship between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate on condition that
