2.The case of the prosecution is that there is a dispute between the family members of the defacto complainant as well as the second petitioner, due to which, the petitioners went to the house of the defacto complainant, quarrelled with him, attacked him and also criminally intimidated him. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police opposes for grant of anticipatory bail on the ground that the investigation is yet to be completed. However, he fairly conceded that the injured has been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegation made against the petitioners and also the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
