2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioner herein and other accused have committed the murder of the defacto complainant's brother. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that based on the confession of co-accused only the petitioner herein is arrayed as accused and seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner herein and other accused have waylaid the defacto complainant's elder brother with deadly weapons and committed the murder of the deceased and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. The learned counsel for the intervenor submitted that the petitioner herein highly influential person and he is also a habitual offender and if the petitioner is released an anticipatory bail they will tamper with the evidence and prays for dismissal of this petition.

6. Considering the submission made by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent and also considering the nature of allegations made against the the petitioner, this Court is not inclined to grant
