The petitioners/accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 427 and 506(i) IPC in Cr.No.343 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to property dispute, the petitioners herein have attacked the defacto complainant and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that it is a case and counter case and the injured was discharged from the hospital. He would further submit that the investigation of the case is pending.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that it is case and counter case and that the injured was already discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Radhapuram
