police for the offences punishable under Sections 143, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Cr.No.202 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute, the petitioner herein and other accused have attacked the defacto complainant and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that due to previous enmity, a false case foisted against the petitioner and the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that there was a family dispute between the parties and the investigation of the case is pending. He would further submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of
