to the petitioner and her family members, since an attempt was made by the private respondents to excommunicate the petitioner and her family.

2. When the matter was taken up for hearing today, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police produced the closure report. On going through the same, it is seen that an enquiry was conducted by the fourth respondent and in that enquiry, the rival parties / people belonging to the Village have stated that they will not interfere or ex-communicate the petitioner and her family members from the Village. Recording the same, the enquiry was closed.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that by compulsion, the signature of the petitioner was obtained.

4. In the considered view of this Court, the rival parties have specifically stated before the Police that they will not interfere or excommunicate the petitioner and her family members from the Village. If in spite of the same, any such attempt is made, it is left open to the fourth respondent to take action in accordance with law. It is made clear that the petitioner cannot take advantage of this order, insofar as some
