2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's son borrowed a sum of Rs.10,000/- by pledging his two wheeler, from the first petitioner and failed to repay the amount. When the petitioners questioned about the repayment, there was a wordy quarrel between the parties, in which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and her son in filthy language and also attacked them.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents persons and they did not commit any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the first petitioner is having previous cases and the injured person has already been discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering that the injured person has already been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. The respondent police is directed to find out as to whether the petitioners herein are indulging in collecting exorbitant interest and to take appropriate action to file the final report in time.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
