2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein and other accused have illegally transported 3 units of Savudu and the same has been recovered. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and his name has been falsely implicated in this case and hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner herein and other accused have illegally transported 3 units of Savudu sand worth about Rs.10,000/- and the petitioner herein is having two previous cases in similar case. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the property has been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
