ORDER

The petitioner, the President of Adhichanallur Village has approached this Court, seeking police protection for discharging her duty.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that at the instance of the third respondent, the petitioner, her husband and five others have been arrayed as accused in a murder case in Crime No.33 of 2024, on the file of the first respondent police. Subsequently, this petitioner and five others have been deleted from the charge sheet by the District Collector, Tuticorin, as the investigation reveals that they were no way connected with the alleged offence. However, the petitioner's husband is detained in judicial custody. At this juncture, at the instigation of the third respondent, the respondent police has prevented the petitioner from entering her village to discharge her duty as the President of the Village. Therefore, the petitioner is forced to reside in her relative's house at Krishnapuram.

3.Mr.P.Kottaichamy, learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondents 1 & 2 submits that based on the complaint of the third respondent, a case in Crime No.33 of 2024 has been registered as against this petitioner, her husband and five others, for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 307, 302 of IPC. During the course of investigation, the respondent police have found that the petitioner is not having any role in the commission of offence and therefore, they have deleted the petitioner's name in the above Crime number. However, the petitioner's husband is shown as A1. He further submits that a petition enquiry in CSR No.369 of 2024 was conducted and it was closed on 21.07.2024.

4.This Court considered the rival submissions made.

5.Initially, a case in Crime No. 33 of 2024 has been registered as against this petitioner, her husband and five others. Since the investigation reveals that this petitioner is not having any role in the commission of offence, her name was deleted. However, the petitioner's husband is shown as A1. The petitioner is having
