2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are the husband and wife. The petitioner and his family members harassed the defacto complainant by demanding additional dowry. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that this is the second anticipatory bail petition. Earlier petition filed by the petitioner and the other accused in CrI.OP(MD)No.4666 of 2024 was dismissed as against the petitioner alone. The co-accused was already released on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) would submit that the investigation has been completed and charge sheet is going to be filed before the concerned Court. However, he fairly conceded that the co-accused was already released on bail.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the co-accused has already been released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy
