2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive between the parties, the petitioner said to have murdered the deceased. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public prosecutor would submit that due to said occurrence, one person died and one person injured. The injured has been discharged from the hospital and the the petitioner is not having any previous case. The investigation is almost completed and he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the major part of the investigation have been completed and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
