2. The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel between the parties, the petitioner and other accused said to have unlawfully assembled together with weapons and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also and attacked him and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner is not having any previous case. However, the investigation is pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioner is not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
