Cr.No.104 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive between the parties, the petitioner said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also assaulted and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital. But, however, the petitioner is having 7 previous cases and the investigation is pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that it is a case and case in counter and the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy
