2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner said to have abused the defacto complainant and his family members in filthy language and also threatened them by showing knife. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that it is a case and case in counter and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. But, however, the investigation is pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that it is a case and case in counter and bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Nilakottai, Dindigul, on
