2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, on 29.06.2024 at about 03.00 p.m, the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Additional public Prosecutor would submit that the injured was discharge from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. But, however, the investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
