2.The case of the prosecution is that due on 09.07.2024 at about 03.45 p.m, the petitioners along with other accused are said to have trespassed into the electric plumbing shop of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him and caused injuries. Further, they damaged the fan and other plastic articles. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the injured was discharge from the hospital. But, however, A1 is having 3 previous cases and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of
