2.The case of the prosecution is that due on 09.07.2024 at about 03.45 p.m, the petitioner along with other accused are said to have trespassed into the electric plumbing shop of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him and caused injury. Further, they damaged the fan and plastic articles. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage. However, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of
