2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein and other accused had unlawfully assembled with deadly weapons and abused the defacto complainant, who is the Police Constable, in filthy language and attempted to murder him with stone and thereby assaulted him when suppressing riot. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been false implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 03.07.2024, hence, he may be granted bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the co-accused already released on bail and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and the defacto complainant sustained only simple injury. He would further submit that investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the period of incarceration and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vilathikulam, Tuticorin District and on further condition that;

(i) the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate/concerned court may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity;

(ii) the petitioner shall appear before the respondent Police daily at 10.30 am for a period of four weeks and thereafter, as and when required for interrogation;

(iii) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness;
