Act, 1957 in crime No.189 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners herein and other accused have illegally transproted 4 ½ units of river sand worth about Rs.12,000/- by using Lorries and the same has been recovered. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and their names have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 06.07.2024, hence, they may be granted bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the property has been recovered and there is no previous case pending against the petitioners and the co-accused has already released on bail. He would further submit that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the period of incarceration and that the petitioners are not having any previous case, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners on certain conditions.
