The petitioners/ A1 & A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 342, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC, in Crime No.94 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with wooden log and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is still pending. But, however, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharge from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
