The petitioner/Sole Accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 353 and 506(i) of IPC, in Cr.No.370 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working as Traffic Police Constable. When the petitioner while riding his two wheeler, the defacto complainant stopped the vehicle of the petitioner. When the same was questioned by the petitioner, there was wordy quarrel between them and the petitioner prevented the defacto complainant from discharging his official duty. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured has sustained only simple injury and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage. However, he fairly conceded that the injured has sustained only simple injury and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.
