2.The case of the prosecution is that due to family dispute between the parties, the petitioner said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attempted to attack her by using Aruval and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public prosecutor would submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and the investigation is almost completed and he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the investigation has been completed and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.V. Tirunelveli.

(i)the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the
