2.The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner said to have abused the defacto complainant, who is the police personnel, in filthy language and also threatened with dire consequences by showing Aruval. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public prosecutor would submit that the investigation is almost completed and he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the investigation has been completed and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
