ORDER

Seeking police protection, the petitioner has approached this Court.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has received threat from the private respondents 3 to 7, for which, he has lodged a complaint. However, the complaint has not been acted upon by the respondent police.

3.Mr.P.Kottaichamy, learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondents 1 & 2 submits that the petitioner has procured milk from various persons and failed to make payment. There is a money dispute between the petitioner and the private respondents, in respect of procurement of milk. The petitioner in order to evade the payment has lodged a complaint before the respondent police. He further submits that the complaint of this petitioner was enquired in CSR No.255 of 2024 on 13.07.2024.

4.This Court considered the rival submissions made.

5.The petitioner has lodged a complaint as if the private respondents have attempted to assault and criminally intimidated the petitioner. In the event, if any occurrence has taken place as alleged by the petitioner, the respondent police is expected to take appropriate action on his complaint. In case, if there is a money dispute, the petitioner may be advised to work out his remedy before the civil Court. The petitioner is not justified in filing this petition, seeking police protection for this kind of dispute.

6.In view of the above, this Court is inclined to dismiss this Criminal Original Petition with a cost. However, considering the fact that this dispute is arising out of milk procurement, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed without any cost.
