2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner said to have intercepted the police officer and abused them in filthy language and also attempted to attack them with Aruval. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public prosecutor would submit that no one injured in this occurrence and the investigation is almost completed and he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the investigation has been completed and considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
