2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has illegally transported one unit of river sand. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. However, he would further submit that the petitioner shall abide any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police would submit that the petitioner has transported one unit of river sand illegally and he is not having any previous case. The investigation in this case is not yet completed. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is
