The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 189(2), 115(2), 351(2) and 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita in Cr.No.51 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute between the parties with regard to the first honour in the temple festival. Due to which, the accused persons threatened the defacto complainant's son and they have also snatched five sovereigns of gold chain from the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) for the respondent submits that the petitioners are not having any previous case pending as against them.

5.Considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
