2.The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons have created a forged legal heir certificate of the defacto complainant's husband and registered a sale deed in favour of them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Further, he submits that this Court already granted bail to the co-accused and accordingly, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) for the respondent submits that the investigation is yet to be completed.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also considering that this Court already granted bail to the co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a
