The petitioner/ A5, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(II) of IPC, in Cr.No.490 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant and others went to the Hotel for dinner. After finishing their dinner, A1 demanded more amount than what they ate. When the same was questioned, the petitioner along with other accused are said to have abused the defacto complainant and his parties in filthy language and assaulted them with wooded log and caused injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
