2.The case of the prosecution is that due to wordy quarrel, the petitioner herein attacked the defacto complainant with Aruval and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been false implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 19.07.2024, hence, he may be granted bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. He would further submit that the investigation of the case is pending and hence, strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
