2. The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences and demanded additional dowry. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that totally five accused and the petitioners are arrayed as A1 to A3 and three witnesses have been examined and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
