police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 506(1) of IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.221 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant and were talking with her friends, the petitioners came in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against the defacto complainant and caused injuries. When the same was questioned by her, they abused her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage. But, however, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital and bad antecedent is
