2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was walking on the road, the petitioner came along with other accused in a bike in a rash and negligent manner and dashed against the defacto complainant. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, they abused him in filthy language and attacked him with their hands. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured has sustained only simple injury and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that A1 was arrested and still in custody and the investigation is in preliminary stage. But, however, he fairly conceded that the injured has sustained only simple injury and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured has sustained only simple injury and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
