3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the third respondent at the instance of the private respondents is threatening the petitioner to give his consent for erecting name board in the community hall, which was constructed long back. But the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondents 1 to 3 would submit that they have not registered any FIR or CSR against the petitioner and never summoned the petitioner for enquiry.

4. Recording the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), the Criminal Original Petition stands closed.
