BNS, 2023, in Crime No.177 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences assaulted him with hands and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that it is a case and counter and there is no previous case against the petitioners and the injured was discharge from the hospital. The investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant
