This Writ Petition has been filed for a direction to the respondents 1 and 2 to take necessary action directing the third respondent to disburse the retirement benefit of Rs.4,90,543.95/- (Rupees Four Lakhs Ninety Thousand and Five Hundred Forty Three and Ninety Five Paise only) with 12% interest from the date of petitioner's retirement I.e., 31.05.2012.

2.The petitioner is a retired employee of the respondent Society. The petitioner's grievance is that his retirement benefits have not been settled till this date. It is also stated that there are number of similarly placed retired employees. The Management is therefore directed to evolve an equitable formula so that all the retired employees of the society are paid either in installments or on pro~rata basis. The seniority of the retired employees will also be borne in mind. If even after expiry of the reasonable period, there is no reasonable settlement, it is open to the petitioner to file a fresh Writ Petition for even liquidating and winding up the Society so that out of the proceeds, the benefits payable to the retired employees can be settled.
