2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was illegally sold the liquor bottles to the customers. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 20.06.2024, hence he may be released on bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner is having one previous case and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees
