Family Court, Madurai and re-numbered as 527 of 2023. In the meanwhile, A.R.Hamsini lodged information before AWPS, Melur and Crime No.21 of 2018 was registered. It culminated in final report and taken on file as C.C.No. 114 of 2020 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate, Melur. The order passed by the trial magistrate was reversed. Questioning the same, A.R.Hamsini filed this civil revision petition.

3. When the matter was listed before me, I indicated to the counsel on either side that the issue could be amicably resolved. Pursuant to the request made by the Court, both the parties appeared before me this morning and detailed talks were conducted in my chamber. All the outstanding issues have been settled. A.R.Hamsini and P.Prasanth Krishna are ready to dissolve their marriage by mutual consent.

4. The marriage between the parties took place in the year 2017. We are now in 2024. More than 7 years have elapsed. For the last six years, the parties are remaining separate. In the criminal case filed by wife, the husband and the father-in-law were arrested. There is no possibility of reunion and in these circumstances, there is no need to prolong the matter. I therefore dispense with the waiting period of six months. Both the parties have endorsed on the Court bundle that they have no claim against each other. A.R.Hamsini is also ready to give her no objection for quashing the criminal proceedings in toto.

5. In this view of the matter, the civil revision petition is disposed of in the following terms:-

(I) It is declared that the marriage that was solemnized between A.R.Hamsini and P.Prasanth Krishna on 13.04.2017 and registered as Serial No. 162 /2017 on the file of the SRO, Periamet stands dissolved.

(II) A.R.Hamsini has no objection for quashing C.C.No.114 of 2020 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate, Melur in toto. P.Prasanth Krishna can very well implead himself as third petitioner in Crl.O.P.(MD)No.5626 of 2021.

(III) Thiru.K.Paneerselvam undertakes to withdraw the RTI application sent by him to the employer of Prof.Arunachalam.

C.R.P.(MD)No.1744 of 2024
