Heard Mr.K.S.Duraipandian, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.J.Ashok, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents.

2. 4. Mr.K.S.Duraipandian, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the above transfer is malicious one and it was issued due to some misunderstanding between the petitioner and the third respondent.

5. If for any administrative reasons, an order is passed and that too by changing the seat of the petitioner from one office to another office within the same station, there cannot be any grievance for the petitioner. None of the Government staffs can claim entitlement to a particular seat and there may be grievances if they happened to be transferred from one station to another station.

6. From the submissions made by Mr.J.Ashok, learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, it is learnt that the office of the Assistant Director and the office of the Regional Joint Director is situated in one and the same campus. In such circumstances, I do not find any reason for interference in the orders passed by the respondents.
