defacto complainant came to know about the said affairs. When they demanded to return the jewels, the accused persons abused the defacto complainant and his wife in filthy language and also attacked them. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Further, he submits that this Court already granted bail to the co-accused.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.side) for the respondent submits that the investigation is yet to be completed.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering that this Court already granted bail to the co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6.Accordingly, this criminal original petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvidaimaruthur, Thanjavur District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:
