The petitioners/ Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 329(4), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351 (2) BNS, 2023, in Crime No.127 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened him with dire consequences and assaulted him with weapons and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the third petitioner is working as Government servant. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate(Crl.Side) would submit that the injured was discharge from the hospital. But, however, first petitioner is having 1 previous case and the other petitioners are not having any previous cases and the investigation is still pending. Hence, he strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant
